You will receive the IDNV-Catalogue software with up to date databases via download. Updates for the IDNV databases are available for subscribers via the IDNV data exchange. The IDNV subscription includes a single-user licence. IDNV multi-user versions for use on several workstations are available additionally. There is a quarterly IDNV edition produced on a data carrier for reference purposes. IDNV subscribers can optionally order a postal delivery of one, two or all four editions per year.

Conditional offer, subject to alterations or errors. The subscription is subject to DE-PARCON's and the IDNV system's terms and conditions.
